

With the Iliff School of Theology

Presents

In Care of Creation:

A Workshop on Climate Change and Interfaith Collaboration

Sunday, November 9, From 3 to 6 Pm
Saint John's Cathedral
1350 Washington Street, Denver

Hands On and Interactive

Reserve your place at the table:

greg@sjcathedral.org/303-577-7711

Free of Charge. All are Welcome!

Keynote: A Spiritual Perspective on Climate Change:
Repentance and Reconciliation in a Changing Climate
The Rev. Rebekah Simon-Peter, Director of BridgeWorks –
Certified Presenter – Trained by Al Gore – The Climate Project

With St. John's Green Team & Participating Environmental Action Agencies:

Alliance for Sustainable Colorado  Colorado Alliance for Environmental Education
Eco-Justice Ministries  Greenprint Denver  Interfaith Power & Light

Join An Interactive Conversation
With Environmental Leaders
From The Abrahamic Faith Communities

Dr. Jonathan Ormes,
Former Director of Space Sciences,
NASA's Goddard Space Flight Center
Currently Director of the Denver Research Institute,
University of Denver

Topic: The Science of Climate Change

Dr. Hussein Amery – Interim Director of the Division of Liberal Arts and International Studies, Colorado School of Mines:

Topic: Islamic Principles of Environmental Protection

Rabbi Henschel Dov Hoffman – Director of Shalom al Yisroel
Teacher of Talmud and Kabbalah:

Topic: Jewish Principles of Environmental Protection

Deacon Jerry Kotas – Retired, U.S. Dept. of Energy, Office of Energy Efficiency &
Renewable Energy; and U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, WA DC.

Topic: Catholic Theological and Social Teaching on Climate Change

Dr. David Trickett – President of Iliff School of Theology:

Topic: The Motivation to Embody Change and Transformation

